Madam / Dear Sir,

SBI- RETIRED EMPLOYEES MEDICAL BENEFIT SCHEME (REMB) DOMICILIARY TREATMENT- CLARIFICATION

We refer to our Circular No. CDO/P&HRD-PM/28/2010-11 dated 18.8.2010 vide which members of the REMB Scheme have been allowed reimbursement of expenses incurred under domiciliary treatment, wherever applicable, in respect of any disease (i .e. not restricted to 20 specified diseases) subject, however, to the ceiling not exceeding 10% of the eligible amount under the Plan opted by the member/beneficiary with yearly ceiling of 1/10th of the amount i .e. maximum up to 1% of the limit per annum. Such expenses shall be reimbursed only on production of medical prescription of a registered medical practitioner having at least MBBS qualification and supported by valid cash memo of a registered medicine shop.

2. In this connection, we have been receiving query from Circles that whether bills towards dental treatment prescribed by a dental doctor can be considered for reimbursement under the Scheme.

3. We have examined the issue and it is clarified that dental treatment as prescribed by a registered medical practitioner having atleast BDS qualification and supported by valid cash memo of a registered medicine shop may also be considered subject to the monetary ceiling as mentioned in the above Circular.

4. Other instructions in this regard shall remain the same. Please arrange to bring the contents of this Circular to the notice of all concerned.

Yours faithfully,

For Dy. Managing Director &
Corporate Development Officer
